

A Service of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion

January 11, 2026

First Sunday After the Epiphany

If you would like to receive more information about Trinity Church, please sign our guest book located near the entrance. Everyone is welcome to enjoy refreshments and conversation after worship. Trinity Church is an Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York and is a part of the Anglican Communion which is based in England but found worldwide.

Welcome to Trinity's gathered community! We are together on-site and online!

The people of Trinity Church gather around a table piled high with spiritual food, and there is a place for you and everyone at the table, whatever your religious practice may be. If you are at Trinity in person, know that this congregation supports anyone who wears a mask to reduce risk of infection. Please feel free to receive communion and participate in the service as fully as you want. If you are watching the Facebook Live Stream, you may add comments, likes, etc. to the comment section at any time! If you are on-site, you can use your mobile device to join the Facebook Live Stream to connect with other worshippers in the comment section. Just make sure your volume is all the way down! WiFi internet access is publicly available. Use the "Trinity Open" network with the password "Welcome!"

Trinity Church is a metropolitan house of prayer, a community of worship and spiritual inquiry, welcoming all people. Recognizing our common brokenness, yet rejoicing in the reconciling love of God through Jesus Christ, we nurture one another in our spiritual life together. This communal worship service is many things, including an offering of your prayers. If you are onsite, you may light a candle on one of the candle walls at any time during worship as a tangible way to make a prayer offering for yourself or on behalf of those who are online. If you are not on-site, rest assured that your presence online is felt and valued.

Children, with all their sounds and movements, are a welcome part of the gathering for worship. It is perfectly appropriate to keep your kids with you in the pew. If your baby or toddler would be happier being able to crawl around and play, there are Kids' Corners in both side aisles. These are enclosed and safe spaces for small children (attended by their parents) to play quietly on the floor while staying in church. Additionally, there is a room in the back left corner of the church that has a rocking chair and a changing table where you can attend to your child's needs. Also, just through the door near the baptismal font near the front-right side of the church, there is a staffed nursery, which is available for toddlers through age 5.

Name tags are not required, but they sure help! You'll find sticky tags and markers on a table near the entrance.

PRELUDE

"Blessed Jesus, at Thy Word" by J.S. Bach

CENTERING PRAYER

Let us pray together.

As swimmers dare
to lie face to the sky
and water bears them,
as hawks rest upon air
and air sustains them,
so would I learn to attain freefall, and float
into Creator Spirit's deep embrace, knowing no effort earns that all-surrounding grace.

Amen.

HYMN

"SHALL WE GATHER AT THE RIVER"

1. Shall we gath - er at the riv - er, Where bright an - gel feet have trod;—
 2. On the mar - gin of the riv - er, Wash - ing up its sil - ver spray,—
 3. Ere we reach the shin - ing riv - er, Lay we ev - 'ry bur - den down;—
 4. Soon we'll reach the shin - ing riv - er, Soon our pil - grim - age will cease,—

1. With its crys - tal tide for - ev - er Flow - ing by the throne of God?
 2. We will walk and wor - ship ev - er, All the hap - py gold - en day.
 3. Grace our spir - its will de - liv - er, And pro - vide a robe and crown.
 4. Soon our hap - py hearts will quiv - er With the mel - o - dy of peace.

Yes, we'll gath - er at the riv - er, The beau - ti - ful, the beau - ti - ful riv - er;

Gath - er with the saints at the riv - er That flows by the throne of God.

*Nobody set out to

The Hebrew

The same is true of the Christian Scriptures, some

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 42:1-7

“Here is my Servant, whom I uphold, my chosen one, in whom I delight! I have endowed you with my Spirit that you may bring true justice to the nations. You do not cry out or raise your voice, or make yourself heard in the street. So gentle that you do not break a bruised reed, or quench a wavering flame, faithfully you will bring forth true justice. You will neither waver nor be crushed until justice is established on earth, for the islands await your teaching!”

Thus says God, who created the heavens and spread them out, who gave shape to the earth and what it produces, who gave life to its peoples and spirit to its inhabitants: “I, God, have called you to serve the cause of right; I have taken you by the hand, and I watch over you. I have appointed you to be a covenant people, a light to the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to free captives from prison, and those who sit in darkness from the dungeon.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

The Middle Reading
fills the role of a Bible reading, but it doesn't come from the Bible. It is our way of trying to listen for God's ongoing word as it is spoken outside the limits of the Bible.
Most often, we turn to contemporary poets for this reading.

Madeleine L'Engle (1918–2007) was an American writer of fiction,
non-fiction, poetry,
and young adult
fiction, including A Wrinkle in Time and its sequels. Her books for adults include The Irrational Season
and The Summer of the Great-grandmother. Her writings reflect both her Christian faith and her strong interest in modern science.

It is customary (but not required) to stand for the Gospel reading because it symbolizes the mystical presence of Christ.

The four Gospels hold the core of Christian spiritual wisdom, reflecting the earliest stories and images of Jesus. Like all Scripture, they are not definitive prescriptions but narrative stories requiring endless interpretation.

MIDDLE READING

“MARY: AFTER THE BAPTISM” BY MADELEINE L'ENGLE

Yes, of course. On many days I doubted.
My faith grew out of doubt. The child was good but other babies have been good. He shouted when he was hungry, like any child, for food.
One simply does not think of the Messiah cutting teeth, eating, and eliminating.
He springs, full-grown, in the great Isaiah - God, servant, king. And I was waiting, remembering in my heart the very things that caused my doubt: the angel's first appearing to me and then to Joseph; shepherds, kings, the flight to Egypt. Remembering was fearing;
doubt helped. I had to face it all as true the day John baptized him. Then he knew.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

MATTHEW 3:13-17

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. John tried to dissuade Jesus, saying, “I should be baptized by you, and yet you come to me!” But Jesus replied, “Leave it this way for now. We must do this to completely fulfill God's justice.” So John reluctantly agreed. Immediately after Jesus had been baptized and was coming up out of the water, the sky suddenly opened up and Jesus saw the spirit of God descending as a dove and hovering over him. With that, a voice from the heavens said, “This is my Son, my Beloved, on whom my favor rests.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

SERMON

THE REV. MATT LINCOLN

The sermon invites your curiosity and thoughtfulness about the theme of worship, and is intended to evoke your thoughts rather than direct them. A recording of the sermon is posted to the parish website each week, usually by Tuesday.

MUSICAL REFLECTION

HOLY BAPTISM

PRESENTATION OF THE CANDIDATE

The Candidates for Holy Baptism will now be presented.

The candidate is presented by her parents and sponsors (also referred to as godparents,) as follows:

I present Eleanore Rose to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

Will you be responsible for seeing that the child you present is brought up in Christian community?

I will, with God's help.

Will you by your prayers and witness help this child to grow into the full stature of Christ?

I will, with God's help.

Being baptized today is Eleanore Rose Bellnier; whose parents are Tina and Sarah.

THE BAPTISMAL COVENANT

Do you renounce the malice, fear, and greed in society that protect the power of the powerful while denying justice for God's most vulnerable people?

I renounce them.

Do you renounce the disease, decay, and destruction that harm the creatures of God?

I renounce them.

Do you renounce the desires, distractions, and appetites that draw you from the love of God?

I renounce them.

Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept God's gift of renewal and resurrection offered through Christ?

I do.

Do you put your whole trust in Christ's grace and love?

I do.

Do you promise to follow the way of Christ as the way of life?

I do.

The Baptismal Covenant begins with six questions that follow a form that goes back to at least the fourth century. Although we understand the grace of God's unfailing love to be a gift that is given by God unconditionally, we also recognize that part of the gift is God's willingness to let us reject it. Thus we are also given the opportunity to accept it and commit ourselves to follow Christ in return.

Will you who are in this community of faith, encourage and support these persons in their life in Christ?

We will.

Let us speak in solidarity with the one who is entering into the covenant of Baptism.

Do you believe in the Triune God?

We believe in God, who is the source of all creation, seen and unseen.

We believe God's divine life is conceived by God and was born in the human form of Jesus, through his mother Mary.

In his life, death and resurrection, Jesus embodied God's self-giving love for the world and God's will to regenerate life, reclaiming us from the oblivion of death.

We believe the Spirit of God is present in this world, in our hearts, and within this community, guiding us into all truth and inspiring us to love as we have been loved, to create as we have been created.

The next five questions were created for the prayer book of 1979. The sixth comes to us from the Anglican Church in Canada. Together, they ask the question, "If you believe in God, what are you going to do about it?"

Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

I will, with God's help.

Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

I will, with God's help.

Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

I will, with God's help.

Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

I will, with God's help.

Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

I will, with God's help.

Will you strive to safeguard the integrity of God's creation, and respect, sustain, and renew the life of the Earth?

I will, with God's help.

PRAYERS FOR THE CANDIDATE

Let us now pray for this person who is to receive the sacrament of new birth.

Deliver her, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Open her heart to your grace and truth.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Fill her with your holy and life-giving Spirit.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Keep her in the faith and communion of your holy Church.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Teach her to love others in the power of the Spirit.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Send her into the world in witness to your love.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Bring her to the fullness of your peace and glory.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Grant, O God, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and for ever. Amen.

THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

May God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, O Lover of Souls, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in death. By it we share in resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Triune God.

At the following words, the priest and those gathered around the font touch the water.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

While baptizing the candidate, the priest says,

Eleanore Rose, I baptize you in the Name of the Triune God, the Holy Three in One who both conceives and is conceived, and is present to us in the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Gracious God, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon this your servant the forgiveness of sin, and have raised her to the new life of grace. Sustain her in your Holy Spirit. Give her an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

The priest anoints the newly baptized person and says,

Eleanore Rose, you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own forever.

The priest then presents a candle, lit from the paschal candle, saying:

Eleanore Rose, receive the light of Christ, and be for it a lantern, both to shelter it and to shed it abroad for all the world to see. Amen.

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

THE PEACE

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Now would be a great time to add a comment to the Live Stream!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

"THIS BAPTIZING DAY" SETTING BY WILLIAM ALLEN PASCH

Jesus went down to the Jordan one day, his Father's calling to obey.
Then John baptized him; and the Lord God said: "This is the way!
This is my own dear son. Follow him, his work's begun.
Sin's drowned, the victory's won! River, wash guilt away!"

This water flows as the promise of grace for all God's children in this place.
It's not our doing; Christ has done it all. Give God the praise!
Now let this flood of love wash us clean, all fear remove.
From earth to heaven above loud thanksgiving we raise!

When I go down to the river to pray thinking of my baptizing day,
The Holy Spirit tells me I'm reborn! Old sin, away!
My Savior died for me. Resurrection sets us free!
Grace reigns eternally through this baptizing day!

Please greet the newly baptized and her parents.

Your financial support is not only a practical necessity. It can also be a very meaningful symbolic gesture, expressing your gratitude for the blessings in your life and your hope for health in the world. You can place cash or a check in the collection plate when it is brought around during the offertory or donate online here, or initiate an online donation by texting TRINITYBUFFALO to 73256. You can also get there by scanning this QR code:

SHARING THE OPEN TABLE

All are welcome to receive Communion at Trinity Church. No Exceptions!

All things come of thee, O Lord;
and of thine own have we given thee.

May God be with you.

And also with you.

Open your hearts.

We open them to God and one another.

Let us give thanks to God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; you brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; and so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we sing for joy:

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of five staves of music. The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The music is a simple, hymn-like melody with some rests and ties.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

We give you praise O God, for your glory made present in our midst. In the coming of the Magi, the King of all the world was revealed to the nations. In the waters of baptism Jesus was revealed as the Christ, the Savior sent to redeem us. In the water made wine the new creation was revealed at the wedding feast. Poverty was turned to riches, sorrow into joy.

This Eucharistic Prayer is from the Episcopal Church's Enriching Our Worship.

*Sanctus:
"Land of Rest"*

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the New Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit’s power, may be a people of hope, justice, and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Blessed are you now and for ever. Amen.

Now, as Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Heavenly Father, heavenly Mother,

Holy and blessed is your true name.

We pray for your reign of peace to come,

We pray that your good will be done,

Let heaven and earth become one.

Give us this day the bread we need,

Give it to those who have none.

Let forgiveness flow like a river between us,

From each one to each one.

Lead us to holy innocence

Beyond the evil of our days —

Come swiftly Mother, Father, come.

For yours is the power and the glory and the mercy:

Forever your name is All in One. Amen.

The disciples knew the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

Were not our hearts burning within us as we walked along the road?

RECEIVING COMMUNION

For those of you online, you are invited to have a morsel of bread and a sip of wine (or any substitutes you choose) during the time that communion is being shared.

For those in the building, you are invited to come forward and make a large circle around the perimeter of the open area, where you will be offered a morsel of bread dipped in wine. Please let the ministers of communion know if you prefer not to have your bread dipped in the wine. Also, let them know if you need a gluten-free rice cracker instead of wheat bread.

We are following a pattern of going back and forth between using an alternative interpretation of the Lord’s Prayer for a few weeks and then using the traditional Prayer Book version for a few weeks.

This version of the Lord’s Prayer comes from Parker J. Palmer, an American author, educator, and activist who focuses on issues in education, community, leadership, spirituality and social change. He has published ten books and numerous essays and poems, and is founder and Senior Partner Emeritus of the Center for Courage and Renewal.

Jesus revealed a new, personal sense of relationship with God by addressing God as something like “Papa.” Always feel free to use your most meaningful name for God in saying the Lord’s Prayer.

PRAYER FOR THE ROAD

Let us pray:

Loving God,
we give you thanks
for restoring us in your image and remembering the body of Christ, which has been broken for the life of the world.
Now give us grace to trust that we are a people, forgiven, healed, renewed.
Give us the courage to proclaim your love to the world, and to continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

BLESSING

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and seen, go and do; and the blessing of God, the one who made us and loves us, who animates and guides us, be with you always. Amen.
